FINE BILL AT THE AUDITORIUM.

The sensational novelty act, The Showed a surplus of $715, which Segie and the Girl, is certainly all it was cracked up to be, and more than pleases everybody. The rouring companies of the Hariford Saenger-bund.

Returned from Dallahtful Trin in Canedy playlet, Mrs. Fotter's First, presented by Mac M. Barnes, Louise Reming & Co., convulses the audience with every line, and is a very true representation of domestic troubles. One of the best xylophone players which of the best xylopnone players which has graced an Anditorium vaudeville bill in a long time is Louis Biemel, and expert of Al standing. The sing-ing numbers presented by Gardner, West and Sunshine were original and very clever, and made several encores necessary. Sunshine, the only Cuban girl on the American vaudeville stage. pleased in her Comical Eyes song. The Im., Pison, and Thanhauser rection pictures shown here are gaining in favor every day.

AT POLI'S.

Today sees the last of the excellent bill that is being presented at Poll's for the first three days this week, Dilis making many friends and is meeting with wonderful success in the presenting of his masterpiece, in Old Reginning tomorrow Dillon will use for his subject The Dis-trict Attorney, which doubtless will be perceisted as much as his first selec-tion. Constance Windom & Co, have tending the fair. Lept the audiences for the past two lays in roars of laughter with their. Peter Blanchar whole town has been talking about the nifty joegling of the Four John-minns, which shows very high skill class, for the way they manipulate clubs is a revelation to anyone who has not seen an act of this kind before. The Bell Boy Trio amuse in their excellent repartee and their sing-The Musical Brittons still con-s to please with their highly reare horse of this city will turn out in good force at Poll's, and a warm welome is assured them by the manage-

The headline act for the last three days is the Cadets de Gascoune, who are first-class singers, rendering well known operatic selections. This act especially appeals to lovers of high-class music, for they will hear the fineratic singing act in vandeville.

W. C. T. U. MEETINGS. State President Will Tell Hartford County Members of Convention in

The Woman's Christian Temperance union of Harrford county will have a series of group meetings in which Mrs. Caroline B. Buell, the state president, will give a report of the world's convention held in Glasgow, Scotland, June 111 Mrs. Buell was one of the H. voting delegates to the convention, which was the largest convention of its kind ever held. There were over 200 visiting white ribboners, all from the United States Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, the national president, in her address on the situation in this county said:

on the situation in this county said:

The battle we are waging is a boly warfare of the home against the saloon. In nine states of the United States the manufacture as well as the sale of intoxicating liquor is banned, and in one-half of the remaining territors the sale of liquor for heverage purposes is prohibited, so that now more than half of the people of the United States are free from the legalized sale of strong drinks. This traffic causes 35 per cent, of the imanity, 45 per cent of the idiocy, 86 per cent, of the poverty and 90 per cent, of the crime.

The first meeting addressed by Mrs.
Buell will be held in the Congregational thurch East Hartford Wednesday Sept 14 at 2.30 p.m. The unions represented will be those of Hartford.
East Hartford Manchester, South
Manchester Windsor Wethersfield.

The second meeting will be held in the Methodist chapel in Thempsonville Thursday, at 2.30 p.m. The unions represented will be those of Thompsonville Warehouse Point, Suffield, Granby, East Granby and Enfield.

The third meeting will be held in the Baptist church, Plainville, at 1 p. m. The unions represented will be those of Plainville. New Britain, Forestville, Bristol, Milidale, Southington and Plantaille.

WEALTHY IRISH GIRL Te Become Bride of Former New Haven Lawyer.

Announcement was received in New Maven Monday of the approaching marriage of Attorney James Mark Sullivan, formerly of New Haven, but now of New York, and Miss Nell O'Main of of New York, and Miss Nell O'Main of Limerick, Ireland. The marriage will take place early in October. Miss o'Mara is the daughter of Stophen o'Mara one of the weathlest button manufacturers and importers in fre-land. Mr. Sullivau was graduated from Yale Law school in 1902 and was winner of the Townsend price. He practiced here for several years and afterward removed to New York. He is now in Ireland.—Now Haven Journal-Courier.

An Old One on the Cap'n. A woman passenger on a transit-lantic liner bothered the officers and captain unceasingly about whales. A hundred times a day site asked to be called if one was signted.

But, madam, expostulated the cap-tain, finally, "why are you so anxious about this whale question?"

"Because," she replied, "all my life Fre wanted to see a whale blubber." I've wanted to see a whale blubber Preached at Grace Church. Rev. Cranston Brenton, professor English at Trinky college, returned yesterday to his home in Hartford after spending a month in New York filling the pulpit of Grace church, one of the largest and most important Epistopa churches in the United States.
